Some of you made milk carton elephants when it was a junk modelling session but if you didn't and would like to make one over the half-term this might help you:

Act of Kindness Task

On a piece of paper carefully draw a portrait of your Mum or Dad and surround it with lovely adjectives that describe them, then give it to them.

Today's Story

Using some of your artwork from this week can you make up a story about an elephant to tell a member of your family. Remember to use lots of fabulous adjectives and adverbs, think about it carefully before you start, and maybe have a practice telling some of your toys first.

Over the half-term do keep reading and let us know about which were your favourite books.

Today's story to listen to is a final one from the Elmer collection. Elmer in the Snow.

I hope that you have enjoyed these Elmer stories this week? David McKee has written lots more that you might be able to find in the library when it reopens.

Topic Task (15 minutes)

WALT create simple maps and plans.

Can you create a secret treasure map? You could draw it, make it from Lego or use any other objects or construction kits that you may have. Remember X marks the spot!
Take a photo of your map and upload it to Seesaw.

Screen time warning.

While some tasks involve a device with a screen such as an iPad, computer, laptop, tablet, phone or TV, not all tasks will require such a device. It is important that children do not spend too much time in front of a screen (learning or having some down time) and are enjoying other activities such as colouring, drawing, playing with toys, being active, reading and interacting with those at home.

Thank you.
